

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) has the responsibility for the overall stewardship of the conduct of the business of Capstone Copper Corp. (“Capstone”) and the activities of management. Management is responsible for the day-to-day conduct of the business. The Board’s fundamental objectives are to enhance and preserve long-term shareholder value, and to ensure Capstone meets its obligations on an ongoing basis and that Capstone operates in a reliable and safe manner. In performing its functions, the Board should also consider the legitimate interests that its other stakeholders, such as employees, customers and communities, may have in Capstone. In overseeing the conduct of the business, the Board, through the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), shall set the standards of conduct for Capstone.

In performing its function, the Board will act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of Capstone.

2. COMPOSITION

The Board operates by delegating certain of its authorities to management and by reserving certain powers to itself. The Board retains the responsibility for managing its own affairs including selecting its Chair, nominating candidates for election to the Board and constituting committees of the Board. Subject to the Articles of Capstone and the British Columbia Business Corporations Act (the “Act”), the Board may constitute, seek the advice of and delegate powers, duties and responsibilities to committees of the Board.

3. CORE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board’s principal duties and responsibilities fall into a number of categories which are outlined below.

A. Legal Requirements

The Board has the responsibility to direct management to ensure that all legal requirements have been met and documents and records have been properly prepared, approved and maintained.

The Board has the statutory responsibility to:

- i. Manage or, to the extent it is entitled to delegate such power, to supervise the management of the business and affairs of Capstone by the senior officers of Capstone;
- ii. Exercise the care, diligence and skill that reasonable, prudent people would exercise in comparable circumstances;
- iii. Act in accordance with its obligations contained in the Act and the regulations, Capstone’s Articles, applicable Canadian securities legislation, and other relevant legislation and regulations; and
- iv. Ensure that management has established an effective risk management system.

B. Independence

The Board has the responsibility to ensure that appropriate structures and procedures are in place to permit the Board to function independently of management, including endeavouring to have a majority of independent directors as well as an independent Chair or an independent Lead Director, as the term “independent” is defined in National Instrument 58-101 “Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices”.

C. Strategy Determination

The Board has the responsibility to ensure that long term goals and a strategic planning process for Capstone is put in place and to participate with management through its committees in approving the mission of the business of Capstone and the strategic plan by which it proposes to achieve its goals, which strategic plan takes into account, among other things, the opportunities and risks of Capstone’s business.

D. Managing Risk and Insurance

The Board has the responsibility to identify and understand the principal risks of the business in which Capstone is engaged, to achieve a proper balance between risks incurred and the potential return to shareholders, and to ensure management has put in place systems which effectively identify, monitor and manage those risks with a view to the long-term viability of Capstone. The Board’s oversight of risk includes assessing the environmental and social impacts and related risks of environmental, social and governance (ESG) impacts on the corporate strategy and operating model. The Board also has the responsibility to take appropriate steps to minimize material risk exposures by assessing Capstone’s risk profile, categories of risk Capstone faces, strategies implemented to mitigate identified risks, and maintaining appropriate insurance programs to transfer risks where appropriate, including Capstone’s captive insurance program. Board committees assist the Board in fulfilling its risk oversight responsibilities in certain areas of risk, as outlined in each Board Committee’s Terms of Reference document.

E. Division of Responsibilities

The Board has the responsibility to:

- i. Appoint directors to committees, and to delegate responsibilities to committees where appropriate to do so;
- ii. Have in place position descriptions for:
  - a) The Lead Director of the Board;
  - b) The Chair of the Board;
  - c) The Chair of each Board Committee;
  - d) The Chief Executive Officer;
  - e) The President and Chief Operating Officer; and
  - f) The Chief Financial Officer; and
- iii. Ensure that the directors of Capstone’s subsidiaries are qualified and appropriate and that they are provided with copies of Capstone’s policies for consideration for implementation by the subsidiaries.

To assist it in exercising its responsibilities, the Board has established four standing committees of the Board: the Audit Committee, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee, the Governance, Nominating & Sustainability Committee and the Technical, Health, Environment, Safety & Sustainability Committee. The Board may also establish other standing or special committees from time to time.

Each committee shall have written Terms of Reference that clearly establish its purpose, composition, responsibilities, authority, accountability and meetings.
